

The Polesden Lacey Infant School Home School Agreement details the school's expectations of both children and parents, as well as what children and parents can expect from the school. We expect all the parents at Polesden Lacey Infant School to sign this agreement in order to create successful and solid partnerships which support all our families and help all our children achieve their best in safe and secure surroundings.

Headteacher

The Staff of Polesden Lacey Infant School will:

Provide a foundation for lifelong learning.

Provide a broad, balanced and creative curriculum, in line with the Early Years Curriculum and the National Curriculum.

Promote high expectations so all children can achieve their potential.

Encourage children to be happy and take care of their surroundings and others around them.

Encourage children to take pride in their achievements.

Encourage children to show the school values: Fair, Resilient, Respectful, Caring, Courageous and Curious.

Enable children to talk about anything that is worrying them.

Use a supportive approach and show a positive attitude towards all children.

Work in partnership with families and carers to support the children's development, welcome them into school, keep them informed about school initiatives and offer opportunities for parents and carers to get involved in school life.

Inform parents of their children's progress and suggest ways that they can support their children's education.

Ensure that parents know procedures for expressing any concerns.

Ensure that the school community is aware of safeguarding children and child protection procedures.

Rebecca Mole, Headteacher

As a parent/carer of a child at Polesden Lacey Infant School I will:

Support my child's learning and offer appropriate support with their home learning and all projects when necessary.

Encourage my child to become independent and take responsibility for their personal organisation.

Attend Parents' evenings to discuss my child's learning and progress.

Ensure my child arrives on time in the correct school uniform every day.

Inform the school of any absence and avoid taking holidays in term time.

Inform the school of anything which they feel may be affecting my child's learning.

Make sure communication with the school is respectful and share any concerns I have by talking to the class teacher, in the first instance, and then the head teacher if appropriate.

Support the school's expectations of behavior at all times in line with the school's behavior policy.
